Peace of Mind Plan

When choosing an Ageless Adventures tour it is important to be aware of our Peace of Mind Plan. Our plan is second to none in the travel industry. An Ageless Adventures Peace of Mind Plan guarantees a full refund of all trip payments in the event of a cancellation, for any reason, up to 48 hours before the tour. This excludes the cost of the plan fee itself. During the course of a trip, if a passenger has to return home due to illness or a death in the immediate family, the plan fee guarantees a refund of any unused portion of the trip. (Not available on some tours)

Home Pick-up & Drop-off Service

Our popular individual home pick-up and drop-off service will continue to be offered within the Vancouver lower mainland area, including Abbotsford.

Tour Activity Levels

Easy

This tour requires average physical activity. Must be able to get on and off coach and into venues unaided.

Moderate

You should be able to climb stairs and walk reasonable distances, possibly over uneven ground or inclines. Walkers are not recommended.

Intermediate

You must be able to walk a kilometre or more on uneven ground or inclines. In some cases must be able to handle extreme cold and high altitudes.

Wherever boats (excluding ferries) are involved and because of tide conditions, you must be able to negotiate the possibility of a steep ramp to gain access to a boat or wharf.

It is requested that persons requiring assistance be accompanied by a companion. Ageless Adventures cannot provide individual assistance to tour members with special needs.

2025 has been filled with adventures so far and we're excited for the rest of the year and what's in store for 2026. As we go to print with this brochure some tours are selling out quickly. Please contact our office to check the availability of any of our tours or join our waitlist for sold out adventures.

Yukon's Northern Lights

February 18 - 22 Stay 'n' Play

The northern lights are one of the most mesmerizing natural wonders you can witness firsthand. Auroras occur when charged particles from the sun collide with gases in Earth's upper atmosphere. These ghostly glows are most visible near the magnetic poles. Dancing silently in Earth's upper atmosphere, they form iridescent sheets of green and red (or sometimes blue and purple) light.

DAY ONE: VANCOUVER – WHITEHORSE

Meals: S, D

Depart Vancouver with Air North for Whitehorse, Yukon to begin your Northern Adventure. Upon arrival in Whitehorse visit the Beringia Interpretive Centre where you can explore the treasures of the vanished world of ice age giants and the stories of the first people in North America. Enjoy a welcome dinner tonight at the hotel.

DAY TWO: WHITEHORSE

Meals: B, L, S

Today a local guide joins the group for a city tour of Whitehorse, the largest city in Northern Canada. Surrounded by beautiful wilderness, the Yukon's capital city is a small city with a big backyard. Next explore the stunning Yukon Wildlife Preserve. Encompassing over 700 acres with various natural habitats it offers unparalleled wildlife viewing, education, and photo opportunities. Tonight is the first Aurora Borealis viewing event which takes place outside the city in a heated cozy cabin or wall tent. It is approximately four hours; there are snacks and hot drinks included.

DAY THREE: WHITEHORSE

Meals: B, S

The group will visit the MacBride Museum of Yukon History for a guided tour. Home to 40,000 objects, their galleries illustrate stories from Yukon First Nations, the natural world, the Klondike Gold Rush, and more. Enjoy an afternoon to explore on your own before another Aurora Borealis viewing.

DAY FOUR: WHITEHORSE

Meals: B, S, D

Today is an experience few will get to have, dog sledding! Meet the amazing dogs who pull the sleds and have the opportunity to ride the sled yourself. This is a memorable highlight for many past guests. Tonight is the final Aurora Borealis viewing night.

DAY FIVE: WHITEHORSE – VANCOUVER

Meals: B, L

Depart Whitehorse for Vancouver on Air North with memories and no doubt many photographs of your Northern Lights adventure.

A country of dazzling diversity, Morocco has majestic mountains, sweeping deserts, and ancient cities, and it welcomes travelers with warm hospitality and the perfect glass of mint tea. Morocco's natural assets include broad beaches, the waterfall-flushed mountains of the High Atlas, and of course the showstopper: the Sahara Desert. Many travellers are enthralled by the imperial cities and the vestiges of culture intertwined with ancient desert trading routes in mud-brick fortress settlements.

Moroccan cuisine is a vibrant blend of Arab, Berber, Andalusian, Mediterranean, and African influences, resulting in a unique and flavourful culinary experience. It's known for its bold spice profiles, featuring ingredients like cumin, cinnamon, turmeric, ginger, and saffron. Staples include couscous, tagine (a slow-cooked stew), harira (a lentil soup), and pastries like pastilla. There will be many opportunities to savour local delicacies.

DAY ONE: VANCOUVER – CASABLANCA

Depart on your Moroccan adventure mid morning from Vancouver. After a brief stop in Montreal an overnight flight will take you to Casablanca, Morocco's largest and most modern city, known for its mix of cultures and modern infrastructure.

DAY TWO: CASABLANCA

Meals: D

After arriving this morning the group will visit the Hassan II Mosque for a guided tour. Set on an outcrop jutting over the ocean with a 210m-tall minaret it's a showcase of the finest Moroccan artisanship: hand-carved stone and wood, intricate marble flooring and inlay, gilded cedar ceilings. Afterwards check in to the hotel for some free time to rest and explore your surroundings. Enjoy dinner with the group this evening.

DAY THREE: CASABLANCA – RABAT

Meals: B, D

Travel up the coast to Rabat, a cultural city deeply rooted in history with masterpieces decorating its streets and squares. A local guide will introduce you to this fascinating city on a tour which will include a visit to Kasbah Oudaia, a historic fortress with vibrant streets and lush gardens; and views of the Royal Palace and Mausoleum of Mohammed V. The afternoon is free to explore. Perhaps stroll through the medina...the old, typically walled, and often maze-like city center found in many North African cities. It's a historical district and often contains narrow streets, souks (markets), fountains, palaces, and mosques.

DAY FOUR: RABAT – CHEFCHAOUEN

Meals: B, D

A scenic drive awaits enroute to Chefchaouen, known as Morocco's Blue City, the whole city seems to be rinsed in azure. Upon arrival take a light afternoon walk led by the tour manager through the medina's blue washed alleys, an opportunity to mingle with the local population, and to smell and taste delights. Enjoy dinner at the hotel with the group.

DAY FIVE: CHEFCHAOUEN

Meals: B, D

This morning visit the Kasbah fortress - a kasbah is a citadel or fortified quarter of a city. It's often the oldest or most prominent part of a city, with strong defensive walls and gates. The Kasbah in Chefchaouen stands in the middle of the old quarter and with lush gardens and a museum it is a must-see. The remainder of the day is free to relax or explore.

DAY SIX: CHEFCHAOUEN – VOLUBILIS – MEKNES – FEZ

Meals: B, D

Travel south inland to Volubilis, a partly excavated Berber-Roman city and a UNESCO World Heritage Site, known for its well-preserved Roman ruins, including impressive mosaics. Next, visit Meknes, one of the imperial cities. The group will view the Bab el Mansour, a huge gate with arches and mosaic tiling which leads into the former imperial city. As well visit the Mausoleum of Sultan Moulay Ismail, who made the city his capital in the 17th century, with beautiful courtyards and fountains. Arrive in Fez for a two night stay.

Ait-Ben-Haddou

Chefchaouen

Casablanca

DAY SEVEN: FEZ

Meals: B, D

This morning a local guide will give the group a guided tour of Fez, the oldest of Morocco's four imperial cities, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The tour will include visits to the Madrasa El-Attarine, a beautiful 14th century Islamic college; and the Nejjarine Museum, showcasing the traditional craftsmanship and artistry of Moroccan woodworking. As well view the Royal Palace and tanneries. In the afternoon take part in a Moroccan tradition with an Art Argile Pottery and Mosaic Class.

DAY EIGHT: FEZ – ERFOUD

Meals: B, D

Today is a scenic drive enroute to Erfoud through the Middle Atlas Mountains which are covered with cedar forests. You will journey through the town of Azrou with an opportunity to see its wild monkeys and take in the beautiful scene of the Ziz Valley with its thick, lush canopy of palm trees between old, striated cliffs from the Jurassic era. After checking in to the hotel for a two night stay there is an optional sunset 4x4 drive into the dunes.

DAY NINE: ERFOUD – RISSANI – ERFOUD

Meals: B, D

Enjoy a half day excursion to the historic town of Rissani, the gateway to the Sahara Desert. It was once a significant stop on ancient trade routes. It has a lively souk (traditional market) where visitors can experience real Moroccan life and flavours. The group will have a guided tour of the souk and Ksar (fortified village) followed by a visit to a fossil workshop. Return to Erfoud and have the remainder of the day at leisure.

DAY TEN: ERFOUD – OUARZAZATE

Meals: B, D

Spectacular scenery awaits today on the drive through Dades Gorge with awe-inspiring landscapes and serpentine roads and across the dramatic Atlas foothills. Arrive in Ouarzazate, a caramel coloured oasis set against the blue African sky, nicknamed the door of the desert, for a one night stay.

DAY ELEVEN: OUARZAZATE – AÏT-BEN-HADDOU – MARRAKECH

Meals: B, D

Depart for Marrakech this morning with scenic stops along the way. Visit the UNESCO-listed Kasbah of Aït-Ben-Haddou (Ksar of Aït Benhaddou) one of Morocco's most impressive historic landmarks and a popular film location for Hollywood movies. As well cross over the Tizi n'Tichka Pass (2260m) which connects Marrakesh with the southern oases and offers spectacular mountain scenery. Arrive in Marrakech for a two night stay.

DAY TWELVE: MARRAKECH

Meals: B, D

This morning a local guide will introduce the group to Marrakech, known as the "red city" due to its buildings and ramparts constructed of beaten clay, it is the first of Morocco's four imperial cities. Stroll through the rose-hued medina which is packed with restored palaces, restaurants, and boutiques. Visit the Bahia Palace built in the 19th century and the Koutoubia Mosque built in the 12th century. Enjoy a free afternoon to explore or relax. The group will have a farewell dinner at a local restaurant.

DAY THIRTEEN: MARRAKECH – CASABLANCA – VANCOUVER

Meals: B

Depart Marrakech for Casablanca for the return flight to Vancouver with many memories of your incredible Moroccan adventure.

South of France

Early Autumn 2026

13 nights | 14 days | Meals TBA

Dates, price, and full itinerary TBA. Please contact our office to be added to our Interest List.

Full tour details will be in our January 2026 Tour Brochure and added to our website when confirmed.

We are eagerly looking ahead to the early autumn of 2026 and a gorgeous new destination: the South of France. France seduces travelers with iconic landmarks and cafe terraces, epic history and bustling village life. Experiences - and cuisine – are just waiting to be savoured. We will tour through this stunning area visiting incredible places such as Bordeaux, renowned worldwide as the wine capital of France; Avignon, with medieval streets and houses to private mansions from the Renaissance, and ancient, enticing squares, some no bigger than a tiny lane; Provence, featuring a splendid recipe of arid climate, oceans of vineyards, stunning scenery, lively cities, and adorable hill-capping villages; and Nice, the queen of the French Riviera, dripping elegance and panache from every belle époque palace, baroque chapel, and Mediterranean-blue chair on the promenade. These are just a few highlights of the itinerary we are working on. Stay tuned for more details and put your name on our Interest List to secure your spot!
